

GLOBALalliance

Global Alliance for Diversifying the Science
& Engineering Workforce

A Collaborative Partnership of the American Association for the Advancement of Science,
Women in Engineering Programs & Advocates Network and Association for Women in Science.

Photo Gallery 2004 World Engineers' Convention Women's Forum

Photo 1: Dr. Suzanne Brainard, Co-Director, Global Alliance, finishes her introduction of keynote speaker Drina Yue, Vice President & Managing Director, Broadband Communications Sector Asia Pacific, Motorola, Panel Sessions, Nov. 2, 2004 World Engineers' Convention Women's Forum

Photo 2: Keynote speaker Molly Zhang, Site Director, Dow Chemical Company (Map Ta Phut, Thailand Office), discusses best practices to recruit and retain women at Dow, Panel Sessions, Nov. 2, 2004 World Engineers' Convention Women's Forum

Photo 3: Keynote speaker Jennifer So, AP Inclusion and Diversity Program Manager, Hewlett Packard, discusses best practices to recruit and retain women at HP, Panel Sessions, Nov. 2, 2004 World Engineers' Convention Women's Forum

Photo 4: Some of the participants of the Panel Sessions, Nov. 2, 2004 World Engineers' Convention Women's Forum

Photo 5: William Wulf, President, US National Academy of Engineering, sharing remarks at the Global Alliance luncheon, Nov. 2, 2004 World Engineers' Convention Women's Forum.

Photo 6: Irene Muloni, Managing Director, Uganda Electricity Distribution Company Ltd, sharing remarks at the Global Alliance luncheon, Nov. 2, 2004 World Engineers' Convention Women's Forum.

Photo 7: Two Chinese university students talking with Hu Qi Heng, Vice Chairman of the Chinese Association for Science & Technology (CAST) after the Global Alliance luncheon, Nov. 2, 2004 World Engineers' Convention Women's Forum.

Photo 8: Participants of the 2004 Women's Roundtable Summit, World Engineers' Convention, Nov. 4, 2004 in front of the Shanghai Science Hall